

Sister M. Immaculata Metallo, D.M.

Sister M. Immaculata Metallo, D.M., a member of the Daughters of Our Lady of Mercy, Villa Rossello, Newfield, NJ, died at Misericordia Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, York, PA on Sunday, December 29, 2002. She was 93.

Sister Immaculata was born in Steelton, PA, daughter of the late Francesco Metallo and Emilia (Lanza) Metallo. She entered the Congregation of the Daughters of Our Lady of Mercy on December 8, 1928.

Sister Immaculata taught and later served as Principal in various schools in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and New Jersey. She was the Directress of Holy Child Nursery, York from 1943 to 1948. Semiretired in 1991, Sister Immaculata continued to share her gifts and talents at Villa Rossello.